

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF ARKANSAS
EL DORADO DIVISION

CHRYSTAL LYNN RIFE

PLAINTIFF

vs.

Civil No. 1:20-cv-01030

COMMISSIONER,
SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

DEFENDANT

ORDER

Pending now before the Court is Plaintiff's Motion for Attorney's Fees Pursuant to the Equal Access to Justice Act ("EAJA"). ECF No. 27. Defendant has responded to this Motion and claims Plaintiff is only entitled to $5,268.95 instead of her requested amount of $5,431.01. ECF No. 28. Plaintiff filed a reply; and in that reply, Plaintiff agrees to Defendant's objections and agrees to Defendant's suggested fee award.¹ Accordingly, this Motion is now undisputed, and the Court finds this Motion is now ripe for consideration.

1. Background:

On July 8, 2020, Chrystal Lynn Rife ("Plaintiff") appealed to the Court from the Secretary of the Social Security Administration's ("SSA") denial of her request for disability benefits. ECF No. 1. On May 14, 2021, Plaintiff's case was reversed and remanded pursuant to sentence four of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g). ECF Nos. 21-22.

On July 19, 2021, Plaintiff filed her Motion for Attorney's Fees. ECF Nos. 27, 29. With this Motion and in the accompanying Reply, Plaintiff requests an award of attorney's fees of $5,248.95 and expenses of $17.25. Id. This amount of attorney's fees equals 2.2 attorney hours in 2020 at an hourly rate of $203.00, 20.9 attorney hours in 2021 at an hourly rate $203.94, and ¹Plaintiff does state Defendant overstated the fee award by $20.00 and the correct rate is $5,248.95.

7.2 paralegal hours at an hourly rate of $75.00. Id. Defendant has responded to this Motion and raises no objections to these requested fees. ECF No. 28.

2. Applicable Law:

Pursuant to the EAJA, 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(1)(A), a court must award attorney's fees to a prevailing social security claimant unless the Secretary's position in denying benefits was substantially justified. The Secretary has the burden of proving that the denial of benefits was substantially justified. See Jackson v. Bowen, 807 F.2d 127, 128 (8th Cir.1986) ("The Secretary bears the burden of proving that its position in the administrative and judicial proceedings below was substantially justified"). An EAJA application also must be made within thirty days of a final judgment in an action, See 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(1)(B), or within thirty days after the sixty-day time for appeal has expired. See Shalala v. Schaefer, 509 U.S. 292, 298 (1993).

An award of attorney's fees under the EAJA is appropriate even though, at the conclusion of the case, the plaintiff's attorney may be authorized to charge and to collect a fee pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 406(b)(1). Recovery of attorney's fees under both the EAJA and 42 U.S.C. § 406(b)(1) was specifically allowed when Congress amended the EAJA in 1985. See Gisbrecht v. Barnhart, 535 U.S. 789, 796 (2002) (citing Pub. L. No. 99-80, 99 Stat. 186 (1985)). The United States Supreme Court stated that Congress harmonized an award of attorney's fees under the EAJA and under 42 U.S.C. § 406(b)(1) as follows:

Fee awards may be made under both prescriptions [EAJA and 42 U.S.C. § 406(b)(1)], but the claimant's attorney must "refun[d] to the claimant the amount of the smaller fee." . . . "Thus, an EAJA award offsets an award under Section 406(b), so that the [amount of total past-due benefits the claimant actually receives] will be increased by the . . . EAJA award up to the point the claimant receives 100 percent of the past-due benefits."

Id. Furthermore, awarding fees under both acts facilitates the purposes of the EAJA, which is to shift to the United States the prevailing party's litigation expenses incurred while contesting unreasonable government action. See id.; Cornella v. Schweiker, 728 F.2d 978, 986 (8th Cir. 1984).

The statutory ceiling for an EAJA fee award is $125.00 per hour. See 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(2)(A). A court is only authorized to exceed this statutory rate if “the court determines that an increase in the cost of living or a special factor, such as the limited availability of qualified attorneys for the proceedings involved, justifies a higher fee.” Id. A court may determine that there has been an increase in the cost of living, and may thereby increase the attorney’s rate per hour, based upon the United States Department of Labor’s Consumer Price Index (“CPI”). See Johnson v. Sullivan, 919 F.2d 503, 504 (8th Cir. 1990). See also General Order 39 (“Attorney’s Fees Under the Equal Access to Justice Act”).

3. Discussion:

In the present action, Plaintiff’s case was remanded to the SSA. ECF Nos. 21-22. Defendant does not object to Plaintiff’s claim that she is the “prevailing party” and does not object to her request for fees. ECF No. 28. Thus, the Court finds Plaintiff is entitled to fees under the EAJA.

Plaintiff requests a total award of $5,248.95. ECF No. 29. This amount of attorney’s fees equals 2.2 attorney hours in 2020 at an hourly rate of $203.00, 20.9 attorney hours in 2021 at an hourly rate $203.94, and 7.2 paralegal hours at an hourly rate of $75.00. Id. These attorney hourly rates are authorized by the EAJA as long as the CPI-South Index justifies these enhanced rates. See General Order 39. See also 28 U.S.C. § 2412(d)(2)(A); Johnson, 919 F.2d at 504. In the present action, the Court finds the CPI-South Index authorizes $203.00 for 2020 and $203.94 for 2021. Thus, the Court awards those hourly rates.

Further, Plaintiff has requested 2.2 attorney hours for work performed in 2020 and 20.9 attorney hours for work performed in 2021. ECF No. 29. Defendant has raised no objections to these requests, and the Court finds they are reasonable. ECF No. 28. Likewise, the Court finds Plaintiff's requested paralegal time and paralegal hourly rate are reasonable.

Defendant claims the fees awarded should be paid directly to Plaintiff pursuant to Astrue v. Ratliff, 560 U.S. 586, 130 S.Ct. 2521 (2010). ECF No. 28. Ratliff requires that attorney's fees be awarded to the "prevailing party" or the litigant. See id. 130 S.Ct. at 2528. Thus, these fees must be awarded to Plaintiff, not to Plaintiff's attorney. However, if Plaintiff has executed a valid assignment to Plaintiff's attorney of all rights in an attorney's fee award and Plaintiff owes no outstanding debt to the federal government, the attorney's fee may be awarded directly to Plaintiff's attorney.

4. Conclusion:

Based upon the foregoing, the Court awards Plaintiff $5,266.20. This amount of attorney's fees totals 2.2 attorney hours in 2020 at an hourly rate of $203.00, 20.9 attorney hours in 2021 at an hourly rate $203.94, 7.2 paralegal hours at an hourly rate of $75.00, and $17.25 in expenses.

ENTERED this 18th day of August 2021.
